DISPOSITION WORKSHEET

CASE NUMBER: IAB 2050685
SUBJECT: MARCUS ORTIZ, DEPUTY, # [REDACTED]
INVESTIGATOR: SCOTT HILL, SERGEANT, # [REDACTED]
ADVOCATE: RICK BROUWER
OIR: RAY JURADO

CASE SUMMARY:

On August 24, 2001, Mr. [REDACTED] an applicant for the position of Deputy Sheriff Trainee, arrived at Industry Sheriff's Station for a ride-along. As part of the application procedure, applicants are required to participate in at least one ride-along at a local Station. Witness [REDACTED] was assigned by his investigator to ride at Industry station because he lived in the general area.

Mr. [REDACTED] was assigned to ride with Subject Deputy Marcus Ortiz in unit 141A1 on P.M. Shift. Subject Ortiz was immediately suspicious of Witness [REDACTED] and accused Witness [REDACTED] of being a spy for Internal Affairs Bureau. Ultimately Witness [REDACTED] gained Subject Ortiz' trust and the two began to speak freely.

IAB Note: The witness was not an operative for the Internal Affairs Bureau and was there strictly as an applicant pursuing a ride-along.

During the course of the evening, Subject Ortiz frequented the Sugar Honey nightclub and it's parking lot. Deputy Ortiz, in uniform and driving a black and white radio car, contacted a female in the parking lot and introduced Witness [REDACTED] to Witness [REDACTED] (a.k.a. [REDACTED]). Witness [REDACTED] is an employee at the Sugar Honey nightclub. Later in the evening Subject Ortiz received a cellular telephone call, he returned to the parking lot and met Witness [REDACTED]. The Subject allegedly debated with Witness [REDACTED] about the availability of a second female and was told she was not available. The Subject allegedly asked Witness [REDACTED] "if she would do two." When she agreed Subject Ortiz arranged to meet Witness [REDACTED] in an isolated industrial area. Subject Ortiz asked the witness if he "was down for sex," Witness [REDACTED] surprised at first said yes to oral sex. While on-duty, Subject Ortiz allegedly engaged in sexual intercourse with Witness [REDACTED] as she orally copulated Witness [REDACTED].

IAB Note: The witness came forward with information about the Subject after he failed the applicant polygraph examination (Exhibit A). At the request of IAB investigators, Witness [REDACTED] was given another polygraph test (Exhibit D) regarding the events of August 24, 2001, he tested truthful in the following areas:

- Did you and Marcus (Subject Ortiz) have sex with that girl on the night of your ride-along?
- Did you and Marcus have sex with that girl during your ride-along?

IAB Note: This case was assigned to the Internal Criminal Investigation Bureau (ICIB) on February 19, 2002, after information surfaced that Subject Ortiz was involved in a criminal conspiracy, i.e., that a quid quo pro relationship existed between select local business owners of strip clubs and Asian nightclubs. Protection was allegedly offered in exchange for special favors. Much of the evidence was obtained during the criminal phase of the investigation. ICIB investigators used a myriad of investigative resources during this investigation, including but not limited to:

- Teletrac installation on various patrol vehicles assigned to Industry Station, including the vehicle most often used by Subject Ortiz.
- A Search Warrant was obtained for Subject Ortiz' cellular telephone records.
- Pretext phone calls between Subject Ortiz and Witness [REDACTED]
- Use of an undercover LAPD officer posing as a ride-along with Subject Ortiz.
- Audio tape of the LAPD ride-along.

On August 23, 2002, the case was presented to the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office - Justice System Integrity Division for review and the case was rejected on September 25, 2002 with the reviewing Deputy citing the reason for rejection as: "A Defendant cannot be convicted based upon the uncorroborated testimony of an accomplice."

The case was returned to IAB on September 26, 2002 and the administrative investigation was reopened. ICIB investigators provided evidence obtained during the course of their investigation to IAB investigators (Exhibit E).

On June 13, 2002 and June 20, 2002, two-pretext phone calls were made and recorded between Witness [REDACTED] and Subject Ortiz (Exhibit I). After Subject Ortiz was informed by Witness [REDACTED] that an investigator from IAB had scheduled an interview with him to discuss information learned during his polygraph examination, Subject Ortiz "coached" Witness [REDACTED] and reminded him that nothing happened and that he could lose his job if the Witness told his story.

In the furtherance of the ICIB investigation, on May 17, 2002, an undercover Los Angeles Police Officer was assigned as a ride-along with Subject Marcus Ortiz in Unit 141A2 on P.M. Shift.

IAB Note: The identity of the officer is confidential and will not be revealed during the course of this investigation. The officer will be referred to throughout this investigation by his LAPD identifier, [REDACTED]. The undercover officer can be contacted via his supervisor, Sergeant [REDACTED] at [REDACTED].

During the second ride-along Subject Ortiz made 31 cellular telephone calls totaling 56 minutes during the course of the shift (Exhibit F). As with Witness [REDACTED] Subject Ortiz frequented the nightclubs, driving through the parking lots and speaking to women. On one occasion, [REDACTED] remained in the radio car while Subject Ortiz visited the manager's office at the VIP nightclub.

At approximately 2130 hours, Subject Ortiz drove to the Paradise Showgirl's nightclub. He called a female on his cellular phone and told her that he would meet her in the parking lot behind the nightclub. Subject Ortiz, in uniform and in a black and white radio car, chatted with the female then asked her to make a flagellating sound with her vagina in the presence of [REDACTED]. She complied with his request. At 2200 hours Subject Ortiz told [REDACTED] he had to conduct a surveillance of a house and returned [REDACTED] back to Industry Station and dropped him off. An examination of Subject Ortiz' "Deputy Daily Work Sheet" and the corresponding Teletrac report revealed that subject Ortiz allegedly falsified his Daily Work Sheet during the last two hours of his shift.

Based on this finding, several of Subject Ortiz' Daily Work Sheets were audited and compared to the corresponding Teletrac reports. On numerous occasions, it is alleged that Subject Ortiz falsified his Deputies Daily Work Sheet by clearing calls for service as handled, when in fact he had not responded to the call for service (Exhibit H).

Ms. [REDACTED] was interviewed during the course of this investigation. She denied having a sexual relationship with the Subject or the [REDACTED] witness. She did, however, admit that she knew the Subject. She admitted providing him with "lap dances" when he was off duty. She claimed that the Subject visited her inside the clubs while he was on duty.
